

INFORMATION FOR ADMISSION TO STD. XI (ISC) 2026 FOR EXTERNAL STUDENTS

“Online registrations for Std. XI ISC will be accepted from 15th January 2026.

Prospective parents are requested to log onto www.cjccampuscare.in to complete the necessary formalities.

Guidelines and subject choices for registrations for Std. XI will be available on the campuscare website effective 15th January 2026.

The last date for accepting applications online is 15th March 2026.
Applications will not be accepted after this date.

A minimum aggregate of 60% in Mathematics in the Std. IX and X School exams over three terms will qualify a student for Economics. If a student has not taken Mathematics in Std. IX and X then he/she is not eligible for Economics.

A minimum aggregate of 65% in Mathematics in the Std. IX and X school exams over three terms will qualify a student for Accounts. If a student has not taken Mathematics in Std. IX and X then he/she is not eligible for Accounts.

A minimum aggregate of 75% in Mathematics and Science in the Std. IX and X School exams over three terms will qualify a student to be considered for Mathematics and Science subjects.

Admission to Class XI is provisional till the results of the ICSE Examination are declared. Students not qualifying in the ICSE Examination will automatically not be eligible to continue with the ISC course.

- It may not always be possible to admit all candidates who apply for admission to specific courses.
- The Principal reserves the right to refuse admission/readmission to a candidate without assigning any reason.
- Only candidates with a consistently good record in Mathematics/Science should opt for these subjects.